«Comité pour l'UNICEF Suisse et Liechtenstein»
«Comitato per l'UNICEF Svizzera e Liechtenstein»
"Committee for UNICEF Switzerland and Liechtenstein"

is established pursuant to Art. 60 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code (ZGB) as a politically and confessionally neutral association.

1.2 Purpose

- 1 UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund) is the children's aid organization of the United Nations and comes to the aid of children worldwide.
- 2 The Association represents the interests of UNICEF in Switzerland and Liechtenstein.
- 3 The Association's goal is to actively contribute to the improvement of the situation of children around the world and in Switzerland and Liechtenstein, to advocate that all children, regardless of race, religion, origin, nationality and association, are afforded children's rights, and to promote the international solidarity of the peoples of Switzerland and Liechtenstein. The framework for the work of the Association is the Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- 4 The following activities are particularly important to the purpose stated above:
  - a) providing information about the work of UNICEF and mobilizing support by the Swiss and Liechtenstein public;
  - b) collecting donations for UNICEF projects and programmes that benefit disadvantaged children and supporting and monitoring international programs and the related reporting to donors in compliance with existing guidelines;
  - c) guiding, observing and supporting the implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child in Switzerland and Liechtenstein.
- 5 The Association performs its activities within the context of its legislative and contractual duties towards UNICEF (Cooperation Agreement). It fulfills its responsibilities in accordance with the recognized principles and rules of corporate governance. The framework for this is provided by the Principles of Good Governance of National Committees.

2 Delegate structure

- 1 The Association is organized as a Delegate structure, i.e., the members elect Delegates who are responsible for representing the members, supervising the Association and controlling the Managing Board.

- 2 There is no relationship under labor or contract law between the Association and the Delegates. The Delegate Meeting decides about exceptions at the request of the Managing Board.

3 Membership

3.1 Member categories

- 1 The Association recognizes the following membership categories:
  - a) individual members
  - b) honorary members
- 2 Individual members are natural persons who are prepared to work towards the realization of the Association's purpose. They have active and passive voting rights.

3.2 Acceptance

- 1 The Business Office accepts individual members.
- 2 The Delegate Meeting accepts honorary members at the request of the Managing Board.

3.3 Termination of membership

- 1 Each member can renounce their membership in writing, and individual members can also do so by ceasing to pay their annual membership dues.
- 2 Individual members can be expelled by the Managing Board, while honorary members can be expelled by the Delegate Meeting. This is done after a prior hearing and can happen at any time.
- 3 If expelled by the Managing Board, the expelled member can contest the expulsion in writing within 30 days of receipt of the notice of expulsion for the attention of the next Delegate Meeting, which will render a final decision on the expulsion.

4 Governing and executive bodies of the Association

- 1 The governing and executive bodies of the Association are
  - a) Delegate Meeting
  - b) Managing Board
  - c) Standing Commissions
  - d) Business Office
  - e) External Audit Office

- 2 No person may be a member of a governing or executive body of the Association for a cumulative period of more than 16 years; the Business Office is the exception to this rule.

5 Delegate Meeting

- 1 The Delegate Meeting is the highest governing body of the Association and fulfills the tasks of the meeting of members to the fullest extent. It consists of a maximum of 34 Delegates and, until the end of the current term of office, also those members of the Managing Board and the Standing Commissions who are not or no longer Delegates.
- 2 Delegates are exclusively elected electronically.
- 3 Where seats are reallocated, a so-called overhang mandate may apply during an election term, i.e., the Association may have more than 34 Delegates during that period.
- 4 The election of Delegates is governed by separate regulations.
- 5 The Managing Board convenes the Delegate Meeting by written or electronic notice, accompanied by the agenda, given at least four weeks in advance.
- 6 The Delegate Meeting meets at least once a year. Upon resolution by the Managing Board, the Meeting can also be held digitally. The meeting held after April 1 is the regular Delegate Meeting (annual meeting).
- 7 Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Delegate Meeting, additional Delegate Meetings can be convened by invitation of the Managing Board or, if demanded by one-fifth of the Delegates, the President, by written or electronic notice accompanied by a list of the items on the agenda.

5.1 Ordinary Delegate Meeting

5.3.2 Passing of resolutions

- 1 The Delegate Meeting is quorate if it has been properly convened and a majority of the Delegates are present. If the Delegate Meeting is not attended by the number of Delegates needed to be quorate, the Managing Board will convene a new Delegate Meeting without, however, being bound by the notice period pursuant to section 5 para. 5. This reconvened Meeting will be quorate even if less than the majority of Delegates are present.
- 2 The right to vote is personal and is granted to the Delegates, the members of the Managing Board and the members of the Standing Commissions. Proxies are excluded.
- 3 The Delegate Meeting adopts its resolutions either at physical or digital meetings or by way of written resolutions.
- 4 Resolutions are generally adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast by those granted the right to vote at the Delegate Meeting. If votes are tied, the President has the casting vote.
- 5 In the case of elections, the first round of balloting is decided by an absolute majority and the second by a relative majority of the valid votes cast. If votes are tied in the second round of balloting, lots will be drawn. Voting on resolutions and elections is done by an open show of hands unless a Delegate demands a secret ballot.
- 6 The Rules of Procedure govern the execution of the Delegate Meeting.

5.3.3 Ballot vote

- 2 The Delegate Meeting elects the members of the Managing Board for a term of office of four years; two re-elections are possible.
- 3 Generally, only Delegates can be elected, but justified exceptions are possible. Association members who were not re-elected as Delegates remain on the Managing Board until the end of their mandate, after which they may be re-elected.
